

Police search for bus stop rapist

Detroit News, The (MI) - Tuesday, March 20, 2007

Author: The Detroit News ; Norman Sinclair

DETROIT - Police are seeking the public's help in finding a serial rapist they believe is targeting women at bus stops on the city's north east side.

Since December, five women have reported they were approached by a man with a gun and forced from bus stops to vacant buildings where they were raped.

The latest victim told police on Sunday that she was standing at a bus stop at Seven Mile and Hull when a man forced her at gunpoint into a vacant home where she was assaulted. The woman escaped after the man left her in the building.

Neighbors told police a man matching the suspect's description is known to frequent that area just north of Highland Park.

The suspect is a black man, 25-30 years of age and weights between 140 and 160 pounds. He has a medium complexion, is unshaven and has a front tooth that is either missing or chipped. He was seen wearing a black skull cap.

Anyone with information about this suspect is asked to call Detroit police at (313) 596-1420.

Edition: ONLINE

Section: Metro

Page: 00

Company Name: #keywords2#

Index Terms: RAPE ; CRIMINALS ; INVESTIGATION ; DETROIT

Record Number: det28676153

Copyright (c) The Detroit News. All rights reserved. Reproduced with the permission of Gannett Co., Inc. by NewsBank, inc.